Health Career Academic Pathway Starting in High School

Go as far as you can in your path to a career in health care

Start Here:
- Remediation*
- Math
- Remediation*
- Science
- Remediation*
- English
- Remediation*
- Technology/Computer Science

High School Curricula:
- Statistics
- Calculus
- Pre-Calculus
- Algebra II
- Geometry
- Algebra I

- Anatomy/Physiology
- Physics
- Chemistry
- Biology
- Remediation*

- Speech
- English II
- Literature/Composition
- English I
- Literature/Composition
- Remediation*

- Associate in Applied Science (A.A.S.) degree or Associate in Science (A.S.) degree (two-year college)

- Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree or Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree (four-year college)

- Health Professions Graduate School: Master’s and Doctoral Level Programs

- Certificate Program at a Vocational/Technical School or Community College

- General Education Development (G.E.D.) Credential

- Advanced Placement or Honors Courses
  - English
  - Math
  - Biology
  - Chemistry
  - Physics (optional)